

FOUR-MINUTE CLUB HAS BEEN ORGANIZED AND SPEAKERS ARE NAMED FOR THE WORK

The Four-Minute club was formally organized yesterday afternoon at a meeting held in the University club. Stuart P. Dobbs, district attorney, was chosen as chairman. Gus Wright was elected secretary, and Charles Hollingsworth was made chairman of the speakers' committee. T. Earl Pardee and David L. Stine were named, with the others, as members of the executive committee. Those attending the meeting conferred on the subject of qualified speakers for the coming work and a list of about forty Ogden men and women was named to be submitted to the state chairman for approval and appointment.

These proposed orators will meet with the club officials at 8 p. m., Thursday, in the University club, for further organization.

It is proposed to have men available at any time to speak at public gatherings of all kinds. Certain men will be detailed to attend industrial meetings, others at conventions, at farmers' meetings, at dances, at social affairs, at banquets, in restaurants, at any other place where the public may be gathered into an audience.

The four-minute speakers will be reserved for such places as theaters, where time is limited.

Three women were named, among the number of speakers and they will select two others. It will be their duty to meet at social functions or other gatherings of women exclusively and pass the word to them. They will speak at clubs and matinees, parties, teas and other gatherings of like nature.

There will be enough speakers in the club so that on such a special occasion as the Fourth of July or Decoration day, if a demand should be voiced, a speaker can be furnished every gathering in the county.

JAMES M. FETHEROLF WRITING A WAR BOOK TO MAKE HIS HOME WHICH IS TO BE IN THE EAST PUBLISHED

James M. Fetherolf and family, 2550 Monroe Ave., left Sunday, for Pennsylvania, where they will make their home.

Mr. Fetherolf, up to the time of his resignation last week, had been connected with the United States forestry service since 1907. He has been in charge of the planting division, that department having been created in District No. 4, of which Ogden is headquarters.

The forestry service bulletin, after complimenting Mr. Fetherolf's ability and regretting his departure from the service, states that "He has purchased a farm in Pennsylvania and will devote himself to helping the United States win the war by increasing the volume of food production."

Mr. Fetherolf was a favorite among his associates of the forestry service.

Lieut. Hugh Gerow, veteran with the Canadians of the great war, in which he lost an arm and breathed German gas until his lungs were nearly burned out, is back in Ogden from the east, where he has been for a month. Lieut. Gerow went to Philadelphia to be a witness at a lawsuit in which his uncle figured. From Philadelphia he went to Washington, where he visited his brother-in-law, Naval Lieutenant Irvin McKee, who was in a hospital from injuries. He then accompanied Lieut. McKee to the McKee home in Lawrenceburg, Ky.

While in the east, Lieut. Gerow submitted chapters of his forthcoming book, "Back to Billees," to a publishing house and immediately was given a tempting offer for the work. He closed a contract and returned hastily to Ogden to get his affairs in shape. Lieut. Gerow has written the book while in this city on a furlough from the Canadian recruiting mission and expects to realize a comfortable sum from its sale.

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH OFFERS EXTENSION COURSE IN PLAY PRODUCING

The course in play producing at the university is practically new. It was introduced only last winter, but has grown into one of the largest and most popular courses offered.

In Ogden a great deal of interest has been manifested, especially in the Mutual Improvement associations and the Drama club, toward introducing a similar course here.

As a result, the extension department of the University of Utah offers a three months' course in play production, and his selected as instructor Moroni Olsen, who had charge of the extension classes in this department in Salt Lake last year.

To effect an organization, a meeting will be held at 8 p. m., Monday night, February 25, at the Weber stake academy.

The course is open to anyone interested in dramatic art. Advertisement.

ELDER W. P. MORTON SUNDAY SPEAKER

Elder William P. Morton, chief speaker at the tabernacle services yesterday afternoon, took "Divine Authority" for his subject and showed the difference between the Mormon church organization and the tenets and beliefs of other religious sects.

Elder Morton's address proved careful and studious preparation. The speaker showed by connected logic that the difference between the Mormon church and other churches was basic in that the Mormons have "divine authority" for their belief and doctrines and the others have not. There was a large attendance.

In addition to the address of Elder Morton, a pleasing musical program was given.

Theatres

AT THE ORPHEUM.

"Watch Your Step" played at the Orpheum last night. It was a good show except that the orchestra played too loud. When the women sang, one couldn't hear them. The male voices were pretty good and the singing of "When You and I Were Young Maggie" by Frank Combs was worth the rest of the show. Combs has a tenor voice of considerable texture and flexibility. His singing was one of the truly compensating features of the show.

Fred Hillebrand and Goff Philipps were two others who seemed to outshine their companions. Philipps had a little blankie to get rid of and it was a gentle relief from the frothy atmosphere of the remainder of the show. Hillebrand is an elongated comedian who makes the most of his physical assets and grinds out some fair comedy.

The show has a pretty fair chorus and some good dancers. It was started in New York with Mrs. Vernon Castle as the dancing teacher.

"PEE WEE BOCHES" CAPTURED IN DAY'S RAT-HUNT IN TRENCHES

The half 40 or 50 "Pee Wee Boches" in this picture will bother allied soldiers no more. "Pee Wee Boche" is what the soldiers call the rat which is the Big Pest of the trenches. Lots of them? Hub! This shows just one day's work by these three soldiers. Every day certain soldiers are assigned to rat hunting.

WORLD'S MARKETS

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Recent irregular tendencies were resumed at the opening of today's stock market, issues of the same class moving in contrary directions. This was especially characteristic of rails, motors and some of the war equipments. General Motors was again reactionary while Baldwin Locomotive rallied almost 2 points and Sumatra Tobacco supplemented last week's substantial advance. United States Steel was again under moderate pressure. Liberty bonds were steady.

Trading became more unsettled later most of the leaders, especially rails, industrials and equipments extending initial losses. Before noon an irregular rally set in with short covering in United States Steel, Baldwin Locomotive, Shippings, Industrial Alcohol and distillers. Pools renewed their activity on various war contract stocks. St. Paul common was again freely offered on the rise at an extreme loss of 2 1/2 points. Liberty bonds reacted slightly, the 3 1/2's selling at 97.90 to 98, first 4's at 97.48 to 97.38 and second 4's at 96.78 to 96.88.

Chicago Quotations

CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—Big receipts had a bearish effect on the corn market today. Arrivals at Chicago, Omaha, Milwaukee and Minneapolis aggregated 1742 cars, the largest total yet on the crop. President Wilson's action in shutting off any likelihood of a higher guaranteed price on wheat tended also to favor the bears. Opening figures, which varied from the same as Saturday's close to 1/2c lower with March $1.27 1/2 and May $1.26 1/2, were followed by slight further setbacks.

Oats gave way under general pressure to sell. The same factors, which were effective in the corn market discouraged the bulls in oats. After opening 3/4 to 1/2c down with May 86 1/2 to 87c, prices continued to show a tendency to sag.

Provisions fell with grain. Higher quotations on hogs were ignored.

Mining Market Has Bill Movement.

The Salt Lake market was the scene of a small bill movement, and many of the high priced issues made great recoveries. Columbus-Rexall was one of the most noticeable issues, selling on the close at 99 cents and $1, making a new high for the year of 1918. Bingham Amal. was another to advance and transferred 4000 shares of stock at 9 and 10 cents.

Alta Tunnel continued to climb, and closed asking 12 cents, with a bid of 12 1/2 cents standing. Howell Mining and Iron Blossom were both fairly active, the former selling 4000 shares at 13 and 12 1/2 cents, while the latter brought 51 cents for 500 shares transferred.

Lehi Tintic was the heaviest trader on the market selling 8000 shares of its security at 4 1/2 cents, during both calls, and closed with this price bid very strong, and offered at 4 1/2 cents.

New Quincy was one of the few issues to decline, and closed selling 10 1/2 cents. Paloma sold for three quarters of a cent per share, and closed offered at 1 cent.

Tintic Standard did not have much of a change but remained steady during both calls and sold 600 shares of its high class security at $1.45 a share.

Zuma closed a good day by making a spurt, which closed at 20 cents the ask price and 17 cents the last sale price. The closing sales and quotations are as follows.
